The Institute's Board of Directors conducts an annual review of the Executive Director's performance. The Board uses Survey Monkey to survey members of the Institute's Leadership Team and, separately, members of the Board; questions are based on the duties described in the Executive Director's job description. Every two to three years, the Board also seeks feedback from the Institute's key partners and stakeholders. The Executive Director completes a self-evaluation. Before setting compensation for the Executive Director, the Board Chair presents to the full Board results of these evaluations and information on changes in compensation for members of the Leadership Team as well as current information on compensation for executive directors of nonprofit organizations in Washington State and, when available, compensation of executive directors at peer organizations across the United States. The Board Chair makes a recommendation on compensation; the Board discusses the recommendation and votes on the recommended (or a different) amount.
